

19 Then, at break of day, the king arose and went in haste to the den of lions.

20 As he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish. The king declared to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"

21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever!

22 My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not harmed me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm."

23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

These questions are designed to be answered personally or with your spouse. They are meant to be discussed in a fellowship group. It is such a blessing for us to give encouragement to one another in these fellowship groups. It is so important for us to be not just hearers but doers of the word. Please take answering these questions seriously and use your answers to encourage others!

#1. Write down a verse where God expects his people to live a blameless, above reproach or righteous life.

#2. Write down a verse you are personally going to memorize that will help you think through the reality we are not perfect but also the truth God has called us to holiness.

#3. Read Psalm 55:16-17. As you consider Daniel's example of prayer, is there anything you need to change about the way you pray?

#4. What are the distractions that keep you from praying? What helps you pray with consistency?

#5. Read Psalm 34. What are some of the promises made to God's people in this psalm?

What does God expect from his people in this psalm? (What kind of person does he expect us to be or what does he expect us to do?)
